A LOOK INTO LOOKING-GLASSES-THE LARG EST MIRROR IN THE STATE .- In the days of chivalry -not of Palmetto chivalry, but of that chivalry which withstood a thousand onsets of shield and lance, and at last fell before the stroke of a single pen-about the time the gay young Knights-errant were having such a jully fast time of it in winning golden spurs and the smiles of ladye-lave in tilt and tournament, the belles and beaux were wont to make their toilets before a sheet of polished steel for a looking-glass. It may have been a little before the days of chivalry; we are not quite sure about it, owing to our extreme youth at the time and very treacherous memory subsequently; but it was some where along there. RICHARD III exclaimed on a certain m morable occasion at least according to the rendering of the last star we saw attempt to do the character "Shine out, fair sun, while I salyute me glass;" from which we infer that lookingglasses were abroad in the times of the bloody GLOSTER; though they must have been of a rather inferior quality, or RICHARD could have saluted his without the help o sanshine.

What would the people of the steel mirrors say if they could revisit the glimpses of the moon to-day and step into the large wateroom of Goss & WARREN on Cherry street and see themselves in the immense mirror just fluished and now to be seen there? This mirror, which is six fe t by eight and a ball -p rhaps the largest in the State-was made to order for a gentleman of this vicinity, and plate glass, and is surrounded by a heavy | weigh d 370 pounds. and rich gilt frame. It will cost the purchaser, we should say, very little of any less than five hundred sings. Lying out in an old field. you would take it to be a young skuting-pond uncommonly well frozen over. per, is to be investigated.

Messrs. Goss & WARREN have a large stock of beautiful frames for mirrors, paintings and engravings, and are constantly manufacturing such articles to order. They also have a | 000. fine assortment of large steel engravings. among which is a magnificent English engraving, a copy of Rosa BoxHause's celebrated Horse Fair, which sold in New York some time since for ten thousand dollars. This engraving is unusually large, and is beautifully framed.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE AVALGARATION OF LANGUAGES.—There is a grow The AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES.—There is a grow ing bendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a whill to incorporate them into our own; thus the word Cephalio, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Hoadache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as Electrotype and many others whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage until they seem "native and to the manor born."

'ardly Realized.

Hraddens is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symtomatic and Luopathic. Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism and all febrie diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach, constituting sick headache, of hepatic disease constituting bilious headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as remai and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with Headaches: Anæmia and plethora are also affections which frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic Headache is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health, and prostrating at once the mental and physical expresses. name of nerous heanache, sometimes coming on sud denly in a state of apparently sound heaith, and pros trating at once the mental and physical energies, an in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by de pression of spirits or acerbity of temper. In most in stances the pain is in the front of the head, over on or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting under this class may also be named Neuralgia. ander this class may also be named Neuralgia.

For the treatment of either class of Headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and safe remedy eleving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases of which leadache is the uncering index.

Bridger.—Missus wants you to send her a box of Cephalic Glue, no, a bottle of Prepared Fills.—but Pm thinking that's not just it naither; but perhaps ye'll be afther knowing what it is. Ye see she's nigh dead and gone with the Sick Headache, and wants seme more of that same as relaived her before.

Druggist.—You must mean Spalding's Cephalic Pills.

Bridget.—Och! sure now and you've sed it here's the countless and giv me the Pills and don't be allied's he quarther and giv me the Pills and don't be all day bout it aither.

Constipation or Costiveness. No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so pre alent, so little understood, and so much neglected as sedentary habits; it is regarded as a sight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the sofferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant, are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Piles and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Maligham at Fevers, Abessess, Ivasniary, Dilarrhea, Dyspenant Fevers, Abessess, Ivasniary, Dilarrhea, Dyspen nant Fevers, Abcesses, Dysentary, Diarrhoes, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondrasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symp-tom. Not unfrequently the discass named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence less the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should riceive immediate attention whenever it ocours, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalo Pilis on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insiduous approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.

A Real Blessing.

Physician.—Well, Mrs. Jones, now is the pill you Mrs. Jones.—Gone! Doctor, all gone! the pill you sent c red me in just twenty minutes, and I wish you sent c red me in just twenty minutes, and I wish you sent c red me in just twenty minutes. sician .- Well, Mrs. Jones, how is that headache would send me more, so that I can have them bandy.

Physician.—You can get them at any Druggists.
Call for Cephalic Pills, I find they never tail, and I recommend them in all cases of Headache.

Mrs. Jones.—I shall send for a box directly, and shall tell all my suffering friends, for they are a rea blessing.

has sold two millions of bottles of his celebrated Propared Glue, and it is estimated that each bottle save at least ten dollars worth of broken furniture, thu making an aggregate of twenty millions of dollars re claimed from total loss by this valuable invention Having made his glue a household word, he now pro poses to do the world still greater service by curing al the aching heads with his Cephalic Pills, and if they are as good as t is Glue, Headaches will soon vanish away like snow in July.

By Over Excitement, and the mental care and anxiety incident to close attention to business or study are among the numerous causes of Nervous Headache The disordered state of mind and body incident to this distressing complaint is a fatal blow to all energy and ambition. Sufferers by this disorder can always obtain speedy relief from these distressing attacks by using one of the Cephalic Pills whenever the symptoms appear. It quiets the overtasked brain, and soothes the strained and jarring nerves, and relaxes the tension of the stomach which always accompanies and aggravates the disordered condition of the brain.

FACT WORTH KNOWING.—Spaiding's Cephalic Pills ar a certain cure for Sick Headache, Bilious Headache

Great Discovery.—Among the most important of all the great medical discoveries of this age may be considered the system of vaccination for protection from Small Pox, the Cephalic Pill for relief of Headache, and the use of Quinine for the prevention of Fevers, either of which is a sure specific, whose benefits will be experienced by suffering humanity long after their discoveries are furceiten.

The you ever have the Sick Headache? He you remember the throbbing temples, the fevered brow, the loathing and disgust at the sight of food. How totally unfit you were for pleasure, conversation or study. One of the Cephalic Pills would have delivered you from all the suffering which you then experienced. For this and other, purposes you should always have a box of them on hand to use as occasion requires.
